

FOOD WASTE

- All leftover food
- Bread, rice and pasta
- Fish and shellfish
- Fruit, vegetables and cut flowers
- Coffee filters and paper tea bags (with contents)
- Meat and bones

GLASS

- Broken drinking glasses
- Glass packaging
- Glass bottles
- Broken glass
- Jam jars
- Wine bottles
- Broken glass from picture frames

SMALL ELECTRONICS

- Bicycle lights
- Earphones
- Mobile phones
- Electric shavers
- Hair dryers
- Electric toothbrushes
- Small electrical appliances
- Fire alarms

TEXTILE WASTE

- Unusable clothes
- Bedding and linen with holes
- Socks and underwear with holes
- Stained and worn-out curtains and tablecloths
- Worn-out towels
- Unusable cuddly toys
- Remnants of yarn

PLASTIC AND FOOD & BEVERAGE CARTONS

- Plastic packaging from food
- Plastic lids, bottles, bags and buckets
- Plastic packaging, e.g. from detergent and shampoo
- Beverage and food cartons from e.g. milk, yoghurt and chopped tomatoes

METAL

- Aluminium trays and tinfoil
- Pots and pans
- Metal caps and capsules
- Tins
- Metal lids
- Small metal items, e.g. cutlery, scissors and broken tools
- Beer and soft drink cans without a Danish deposit

BATTERIES

- All small batteries: AAA, AA, C, D and E
- Button cell batteries (typically from hearing aids, toys, watches, alarms, etc.)
- Lithium batteries
- Zinc-manganese batteries
- Alkaline batteries: 4.5 and 9 V

RESIDUAL WASTE

- Pizza boxes
- Packaging that is very dirty
- Ashes (cooled and wrapped)
- Cigarette butts, snuff and chewing gum
- Animal faeces from small animals
- Hygiene waste such as sanitary towels, nappies, pads and cotton buds

PAPER AND CARDBOARD

- Newspapers
- Books (paperback)
- Office and printer paper
- Magazines and advertisements
- Small cardboard pieces (max. A4)
- Cardboard tubes from kitchen and toilet rolls
- Egg boxes

HAZARDOUS WASTE

- Waste and packaging with the following hazard labels:

- Low energy light bulbs
- Lighters, spray cans, nail polish and nail polish remover
- Oil, grease and petrol products
- Pesticides and pest control products

Check your collection day on the "Affaldsportal" app or download the calendar at www.bofa.dk.

